

DOMINIC FERRI ENTERTAINMENT AGREEMENT

1. PARTIES

This Entertainment Agreement (“Agreement”) is made between the Performer, Dominic Ferri, and the Client.

All event details will be tied to the client’s original request for a quote.

2. EVENT DETAILS REFERENCE

All event details—including event date, time, venue, performance type, duration, pricing, deposit, travel fees, and add-ons—are taken directly from the Client’s original request for the quote. That request, together with this Agreement, forms the complete contractual terms.

3. PAYMENT TERMS

- A deposit is required to secure the date.
- The remaining balance is due no later than the day after the event.
- Accepted payment methods appear on the invoice.
- Late payments will incur a fee of 5% of the remaining balance per day.

4. ARRIVAL & SETUP REQUIREMENT

The Performer requires 30 minutes of early arrival and setup with immediate venue access.

Setup time does not reduce the performance duration.

5. PERFORMANCE SPACE & CONDITIONS

The Client agrees to provide:

- A safe, clean performance area.
- Adequate lighting and a reasonably quiet environment.
- A secure space for the Performer’s belongings.
- Validated parking when the venue requires paid parking.

If the venue is unsafe or unsuitable, the Performer may decline or adjust the performance without refund.

6. MEDIA, MARKETING & GRATUITIES

- The Performer may record brief video or photo footage for promotional use.
- Recording restrictions must be requested in writing before the event.
- The Performer may discreetly hand out business cards.
- The Performer may accept voluntary gratuities.

7. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITY FOR VENUE PERMISSIONS

The Client is responsible for ensuring the venue permits outside entertainment, recording, early access, parking, loading, and unloading access.

8. CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY

Client Cancellation:

- Cancellation within 14 days (2 weeks) of the event: Deposit is non-refundable.
- Cancellation more than 14 days before the event: Full refund, including deposit.

Performer Cancellation:

- If the Performer cancels at any time, for any reason, the Client receives a full refund of all payments.

9. PERFORMANCE DURATION LOCK-IN

Once booked, the performance duration cannot be shortened for a partial refund.

If the Client requests less time on the day of the event, the full contracted fee still applies.

10. RESCHEDULING

The Client may reschedule once, subject to the Performer's availability.

If no mutually available date exists, the request is treated as a cancellation under Section 8.

11. AUDIENCE BEHAVIOR & SAFETY

- The Client is responsible for maintaining a respectful audience environment.
- The Performer is not responsible for injuries resulting from unsafe conditions or guest misconduct.
- The Performer may pause, alter, or terminate the performance if behavior becomes unsafe or severely disruptive.

12. AUDIENCE SIZE EXPECTATION

The performance is designed for the approximate audience size listed in the original request.

Significant changes should be communicated in advance.

13. WEATHER CLAUSE (OUTDOOR EVENTS)

For outdoor events, the Client must provide proper cover and safe conditions.

If weather conditions make performance unsafe or impractical, the Performer may delay, relocate, or terminate without refund.

14. OVERTIME / LATE EVENT STARTS

If the event begins late due to Client delay, the performance end time remains unchanged.

Any additional time requested will be billed at the Performer's standard hourly rate listed on the invoice.

15. FORCE MAJEURE

Neither party is liable for failure to perform due to events outside reasonable control.

Both parties will attempt to reschedule in good faith.

16. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, together with the event details in the Client's original request, forms the full understanding between the parties.

No verbal modifications are valid unless made in writing.
